Overall Agreement.

The following text outlines the agreement between HostDime and an approved Reseller. It sets the required qualifications and acceptable practices for Resellers, while setting forth the benefits and terms provided by HostDime to the Reseller (referred to hereafter as Reseller).

- 1) The Reseller agrees to all terms of the standard Service Agreement for all accounts, as well as the company Policies set forth by HostDime on its website, including all future additions or modifications thereof.
- 2) The Reseller agrees to have a "Server Contract" signed and returned which will serve for all services purchased via HostDime. If the Reseller already has one on file, this will be used as a general contract for all future services.

- 3) The Reseller agrees not to employ any abusive practices, including, but not limited to the transmission of unsolicited mailings or Usenet postings in relation to the resale of HostDime services. The transmission of any such unsolicited or prohibited advertising or other unacceptable material, through any electronic medium, including HostDime Facilities, is grounds for termination, at the sole discretion of HostDime.
- 4) The Reseller agrees to submit any promotional materials to HostDime for review. Electronic access is preferred; however, hard copies will be accepted. The Reseller agrees to any editorial changes required by HostDime. The only intent of this requirement is to enforce HostDime standards of quality.
- 5) HostDime will not interfere in the Reseller's acceptable and reasonable marketing plans or techniques, except as outlined in the previous paragraph.
- 6) The Reseller agrees to submit evidence that it meets HostDime standards of quality for the value-added services that the Reseller provides if requested. The Reseller asserts that all such submitted material is solely or substantially its own work, and is not a misrepresentation in any way. Prior work that is in actual use is greatly preferred, although other materials are acceptable. All work submitted would be edited at the sole discretion of HostDime when deemed necessary. Although electronic access is preferred, hard copies will be accepted.
- 7) The Reseller agrees that acceptance into the Reseller program is contingent upon HostDime approval of the submitted materials. Acceptance may be denied at the sole discretion of HostDime.
- 8) The Reseller agrees to maintain a minimum amount of sales (two Full Priced Servers) as outlined in this contract and if the quota for sales is not met, agrees to pay the difference.
- 9) The Reseller agrees to maintain their billing in good standing at all times. Delinquencies of any kind will result in suspension from the Reseller program, and accounts will be subject to the normal rules of suspension for nonpayment.
- 10) The Reseller agrees not to re-refer its referrals to a third party without the prior approval of HostDime. HostDime recognizes that such referrals are appropriate or necessary under certain circumstances, however approval is required.
- 11) The Reseller agrees to act in good faith and not to make use of other dedicated server services in cases where the services could reasonably be obtained from HostDime. The Reseller specifically agrees that it will not take referrals with the intent of hosting the referred customers elsewhere.

12) The Reseller will promote HostDime services from its own website, or by any other means, at the Reseller's own costs. When promoting HostDime services, a Reseller should take the following steps:

- a. Consults with the customer in order to determine what services fit their needs. Forms a complete price quote for the customer.
- b. Negotiates and forms an agreement with the customer.
- c. Obtains appropriate dedicated server services from HostDime on their behalf.
- d. Provides whatever appropriate value-added services for the customer such as: design, programming, system administration, or marketing or obtains these services from a third party on their customer's behalf.
- e. Bills the customer directly for all services together.
- f. Provides payment to HostDime for dedicated server services. When a customer requires a dedicated server, the Reseller rents the server from HostDime and sub-rents it to your customer.

13) The Reseller will be the point of contact for the customer. Only when a Reseller has exhausted their own resources in handling a problem should they direct support inquiries to HostDime support channels.

14) The Reseller will provide support and services at its own rates. When the Reseller requires support or services from HostDime, these will be billed to the Reseller at the rate of $75.00 per hour for (only applicable to non-supported services) support requests Reseller makes.

15) The Reseller will have early access to new features and services from HostDime, when such can reasonably be made available. The Reseller agrees that it will not take steps to mislead its customers about the involvement of HostDime in its dedicated server services. Conversely, HostDime will not take steps to solicit any resold customer, nor will it provide value-added services of its own.

16) The Reseller's investment in its customers is protected by the quality of its own value-added services. Violation of any of the terms or conditions of this contract may result in the immediate termination of the Reseller's services with HostDime, as well as the permanent discontinuation of the Reseller relationship, at the sole discretion of HostDime.
